SCHMITTBERGER CATCHES DELINQUENTS BY 'PHONE.

Eighty-three Complaints Engage Attention of Deputy Lindsley-Policemen Found in Groups in Rear Rooms of Saloons by Roundsmen.

Bearing out the charges made by The Evening World that an exnaustive tour of the city in automobiles had shown that policemen were not properly patrolling their beats, scores of patrolmen were brought up before Deputy Police Commissioner Lindsley to-day, charged with being off post.

Including the oft post charges, there were eighty-three separate com plaints on Mr. Lindsley's calendar -- a crop of charges that rarely has been paralleled in the history of the department.

Mr. Lindsley, who sat as callph of the police tribunal, was unusually severe in the off post charges. He accepted some of the time-worn excuse. of siekness, distincts and other feeble efforts to explain absence from post and inflicted the fines with a readiness that caused a quaking in many boots
